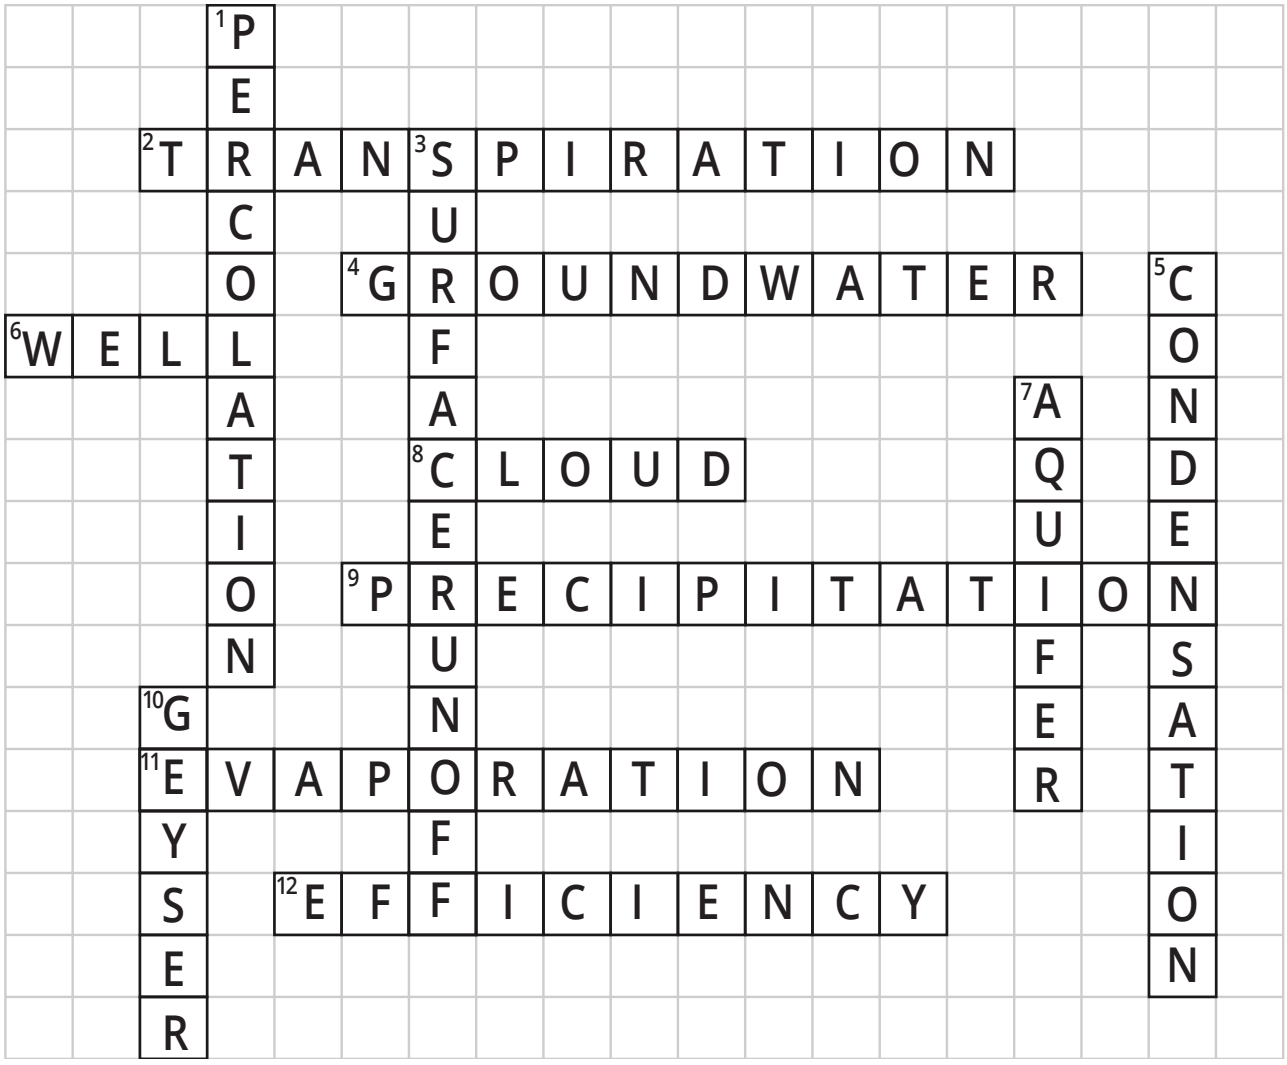
WATER-WISE CROSSWORD



ACROSS

2) Water that passes from plants and into the atmosphere.

4) Water that is stored under the ground between rocks and gravel in underground aquifers.

6) A hole drilled into the earth to access groundwater stored in underground aquifers.

8) When water vapor cools and condenses into liquid water droplets or solid ice crystals in the atmosphere.

9) Water that falls from the sky in the form of rain, snow, sleet or hail.

11) Water that rises from earth into the sky into the atmosphere and becomes a gas. It cools and becomes clouds.

12) Avoiding being wasteful.

DOWN

1) Water that moves beneath the ground.

3) Water that is not absorbed by the earth and travels into our rivers, lakes and the ocean.

5) Water as vapor in the air changes into liquid

7) An underground lake.

10) A spring of water that when heated sends blasts of water and steam into the air.

WESTERN MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICT