

WATER-WISE CROSSWORD

ACROSS

- 2) Water that passes from plants and into the atmosphere.
- 4) Water that is stored under the ground between rocks and gravel in underground aquifers.
- 6) A hole drilled into the earth to access groundwater stored in underground aquifers.
- 8) When water vapor cools and condenses into liquid water droplets or solid ice crystals in the atmosphere.
- 9) Water that falls from the sky in the form of rain, snow, sleet or hail.
- 11) Water that rises from earth into the sky into the atmosphere and becomes a gas. It cools and becomes clouds.
- 12) Avoiding being wasteful.

DOWN

- 1) Water that moves beneath the ground.
- 3) Water that is not absorbed by the earth and travels into our rivers, lakes and the ocean.
- 5) Water as vapor in the air changes into liquid
- 7) An underground lake.
- 10) A spring of water that when heated sends blasts of water and steam into the air.