

Special Drought Edition

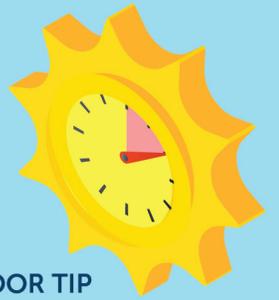

OUR STATE IS DEHYDRATED

Time to step it up

Western is urging customers to reduce water usage by 20 percent. Currently, Western is not restricting irrigation days or times for residential customers. To achieve the largest water savings, focus on reducing outdoor irrigation.

Learn more at wmwd.com/Drought.

Drought Survival Guide

OUTDOOR TIP
Early morning/late evening hours for watering your plants

REBATES & TIPS

- 1 Smart Irrigation Controller
- 2 Rotating Sprinkler Nozzles
- 3 Turf Replacement
- 4 Rain Barrel / Cistern
- 5 Efficient Showerheads and Aerators
- 6 High-Efficiency Washing Machine
- 7 High-Efficiency Toilet

ORDER A FREE HOSE NOZZLE
WesternH2ODepot.com

OUTDOOR TIP
Replace grass with low-water
trees and plants to save 90 gallons per 1,000 sq. ft.
each time you water

LANDSCAPE SURVEY
Learn more at wmwd.com/LandscapeSurvey

OUTDOOR TIP
Avoid runoff with cycle/soak.
Shorten run times, let it soak in,
then water again.

Avoid run-off.

Connect with us @WesternMWD

